TOMORROW, OUR FOREVER

Kathy you're neat sweet and hard

[Signature]

The future has been drilled into our heads since our childhood. As high school students we are being prepared to enter the world with a purpose in life. We are encouraged to look ahead and plan what we want to accomplish. We may feel we have plenty of time to decide on our future, but time does not stand still and tomorrow will not wait for us either. So while we are looking ahead we should not forget our past and all the memories it holds for us. These memories will help sustain us as we try to reach the tomorrow that never comes because tomorrow always becomes today.

Andy Trout

Kathy,

WATCH OUT!

The class of 1981 is very spirited, as they have shown us in the past year. They were top in the candy drive and showed their unique ability in promoting their class spirit throughout the year. With the enthusiasm shown by the freshman class, they have made this year very productive. As they grow older, more will be expected of them, and if they continue as they are now, there should be no problem with the class of 81 fulfilling everyone's expectations. A freshman night was held in order to elect class officers, and to give everyone a chance to meet the people with whom they will spend the next four years of their lives. They chose Greg Waris to lead them through their first year at LeBlond. Greg, the other officers, and the entire class will continue to prove their spirit and unity for the remaining years at LeBlond.

Growing with Unity

Starting their second year at LeBlond, the sophomores found real unity in their class. Under the leadership of Madeline Greub, they collected a victory during spirit week. With great enthusiasm and hard work they placed in the candy drive competition. This class is turning out some good leaders and is expected to do very well this year. The whole school has much to be proud of in this very unified and spirited class of 1980.

Thanks to the Knights of Columbus, LeBlond had another successful carnival. Lasting four days, the carnival's total income was 8,500 dollars. The Knights, led by John Robertson, helped with the ticket sales, chicken dinners, booths, and publicity to help make our carnival possible. A dance was held the second night sponsored by the cheerleaders.

The P.T.A. is an association that helps raise money for the school. Members of the P.T.A. organized the spring festival, sponsored the food booth during the fall carnival, and had a booth at the East Hills bazaar. They arranged a back to school night and helped a great deal in organizing the Fadamoso banquet.

"Honored guests."

Fadamoso—1978

The eighth annual Fadamoso banquet was held February 19 with sons bringing their mothers and the daughters, their fathers. Bishop Sullivan, the featured speaker, emphasized the importance of the family unit in our society. The Concert Choir and Mrs. Clisbee presented a program reviewing student life at LeBlond.

"I'll have a little of everything."

Close your mouth, Jim.

Student Leadership

Student Council officers.

The Student Council, headed by Steve Minnis, leads the way in many activities. Assisting officers are Cher Wasson, Vice-president, Mary Anne Harris, secretary, and Anne Graham, treasurer. Sister Christelle moderates the group during the school year. With the help of the Class officers the Council works hard on Homecoming activities, the candy drive, game night, and this year a paper drive. Their leadership guides LeBlond.

"What's so funny?"

Hard at work?

Student leaders.

"Very interesting."

"Don't smile, Steve."
What's wrong, Mary Anne?

This year LeBlond students participated in their first successful paper drive. The money from the drive was used to buy new speakers for the gym. Other money making projects included the carnival with student manned booths, the candy drive, and the annual spring festival.

High school journalists are given the chance to be recognized by the Quill and Scroll society. Quill and Scroll honors annually those students whose dedication to LeBlond's High School publications makes them eligible for membership. In addition to special interest in journalism and writing the students must be a junior or a senior in high school, must have done outstanding work in a journalistic field, such as helping on a newspaper or a yearbook, and must have ranked within the top one-third of his or her class. An initiation fee fulfills these requirements for a member on acceptance the student receives a pin or charm and a one year subscription to the Quill and Scroll magazine. The hard work and time of these people are the foundation behind our own yearbook and Spectrum.

Serious business

The Aerie Staff of 1977-78 consists of 48 members representing all four classes. Under the editorship of Tammy McCleave, senior editor, and Cathy Kessler, Junior editor, the staff put in many hours of hard work to produce a book it is proud of. Section editors urged their groups to complete mats and copy in time for each deadline. Sister Bettina is the moderator.

Latinum Corpus

This year's Latin officers, under the supervision of Sr. Patrice, established a better understanding of Roman life and customs. They led LeBlond during the Advent Season with the making of the Advent wreath. They also kept the class interesting by participating in various games and contests.

The Library: A Learning Experience

The Library club, one of LeBlond's oldest clubs, is an activity for people who are interested in reading and promoting interest in the Library. The club, lead by their President Annette VanGundy, and moderated by Mrs. Rinehart, planned many activities during the school year such as the Christmas Party and the bake sale. They also visited a library to see how one operates.

Off on the Right Foot

After 2 successful years under the guidance of Coach Hindery, Coach Duane Kimble took over as head cross country coach. He led them to a successful year, placing 2nd at the Mule Cross Relays, 8th at the Benton Invitational, and 4th at M.E.C. Co-Captain Kevin Kolega was the most consistent and best runner all year. Co-Captain Danny Canchola and senior Brian Buckman provided excellent leadership. Sophomores Dennis Jennings and David Hinkley give great hope for future cross country teams.

LeBlond's Spirit Leaders

The LeBlond cheerleaders have made their mark over the Midland Empire. In last summer's camp at Doane College, our spirited girls emerged as Grand Champions. Their spirit and enthusiasm made for thrilling pep rallies, enjoyable homecoming festivities, and victorious athletic events. Their dedication and drive are major contributions to LeBlond's success in all activities. Sue Westhoff, head, and three others with three years experience have contributed much to the squad.

Reserve cheerleader (from left to right): Maria Tovar, Mary Cox, Debbie Bullimore, Kim Geiger (head), Erin O'Brien, and Jean Thedinga (on top).

The freshman football team proved to be quite powerful during the 1977 season. The coaches, Bizal and Zeisel, taught the players the fundamentals that made the team strong.

Certain players showing experience in the game, were helpful in giving the team its strength. The quarterback, John Ruddy, did a fine job, and looks promising for future years. Other players who added alot to the team were Mike Reiner, Jeff Samenus, John Clark and Randy Pivalal.

Eagle Stride!

Stick'em! Stick 'em!

The longest yard

The junior varsity team showed their will to play football this season and did so quite well, even though their 2 and 4 record didn't shine the right light on the team's effort. They were led by the constant effort of Mike Farrar, Robert Schnabel and Mark Carmichael.

Reserve losses though many, were very close, and the team seemed to always be in contention with other teams. Reserve players look promising for the next season.

"Get off my back!"

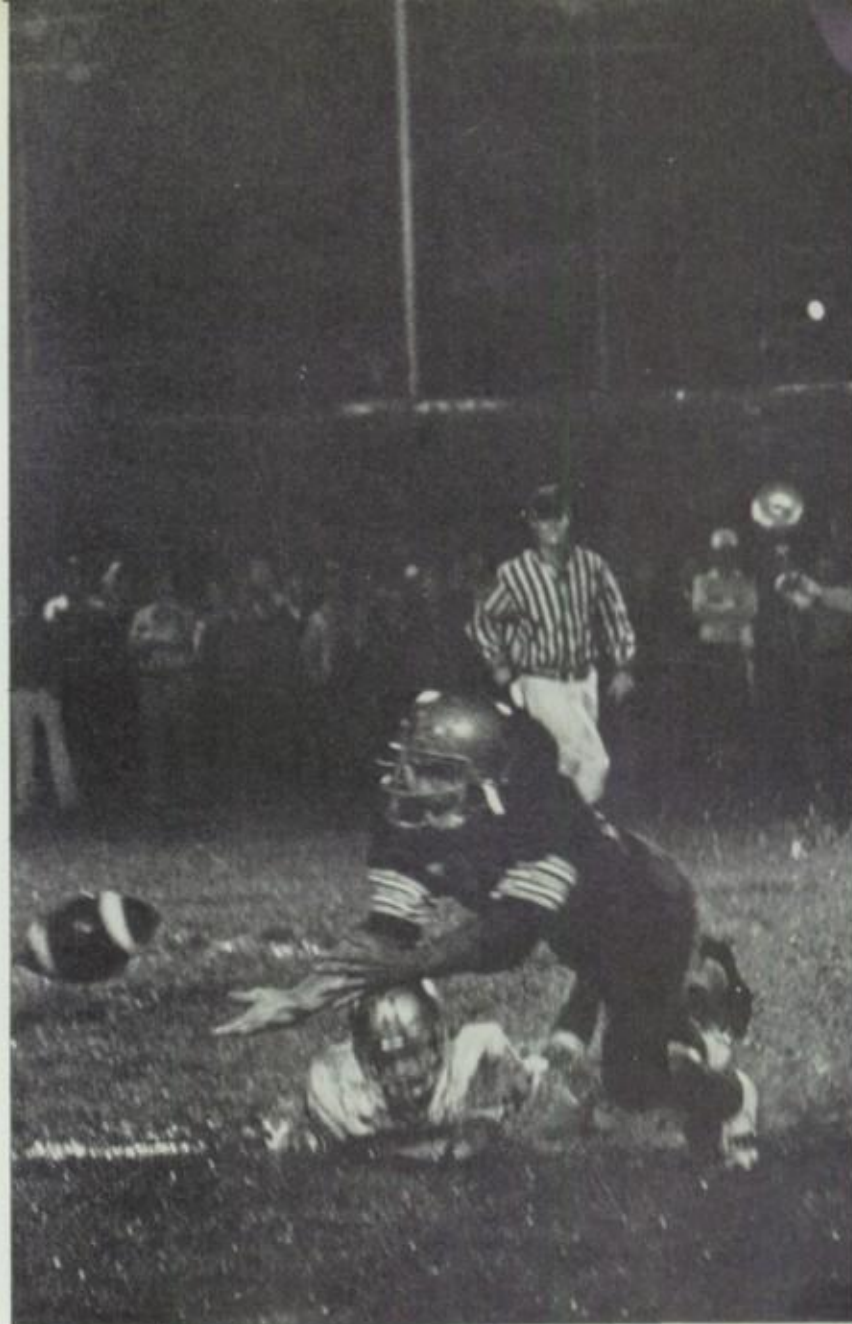

A lot of L.B. spirit.

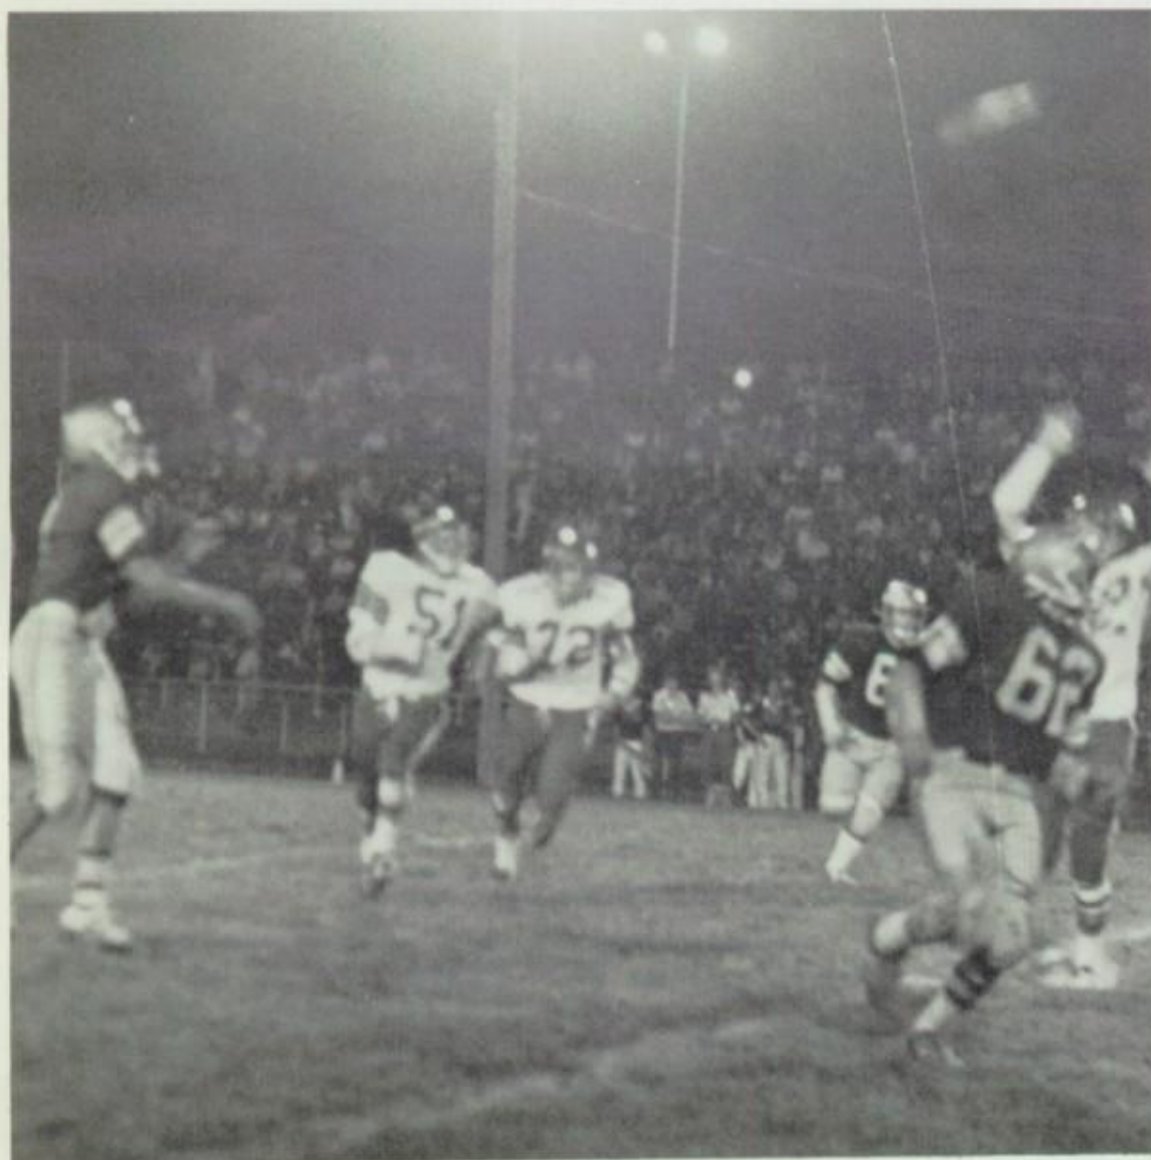

The football season started out with the trouncing of West Platte. From that point on the Eagles were to find nothing but close, hard fought battles. With nearly all the starters inexperienced on the varsity level, Coach Tabor and his team were to earn the respect of all their opponents. Unexpectedly playing well against the larger city schools, the Eagles proved that dedication, unity, output, and talent can stand up to any team.

Queen
Mary Pat Mahoney

Mary Pat Mahoney reigned over 1977 football homecoming activities. Her reign as queen began Thursday night at the bonfire. Mary Pat was accompanied by her court, Marilyn Greub, who was the first attendant, and Cher Wasson, the second attendant. Activities other than the bonfire, included the pep rally, parade to Noyes field, the football game and the homecoming dance. These three girls helped make the festivities a success.

Outa sight!

The girls reserve basketball team proved to be strong this year. With the fine coaching of Jan Shores, the team had a record of 9-5. They also tied Lafayette for second place for the city title. Three top performers were Amy Fitzpatrick, Mary Ann Monahan and Lisa Prawitz.

Tis' the Season

The girl's basketball season was an enjoyable one for both players and fans. Although the season was not the most productive in the win column, yet the girls brought pride to Le-Blond. Senior Kelly O'Rourke's leadership and the excellent outside shooting of Darcie David and Marlene Bigham paced the Eaglettes. Diane Bigham also helped out.

Frosh Spirit Shines

The freshman spirit was greatly shown this year with the help of the frosh cheerleaders. The first pep rally was a scare for them, but as the year went by, with the help of Rosie O'Rourke, Kristi Buckman, Peggy Monahan and Andi Bransfield, the rest were a breeze.

Concentration is the key.

The freshman boys basketball team really proved tough this past season. Under the leadership of Coach Mike Ziesel the team did a good job, considering it their first year in high school basketball. A record of 11-4 shows evidence of their ability. They were led by Rick Rhyner and John Ruddy.

Under the coaching of Mike Ziesel, the Eagle reserves give hope for a fifth straight regional championship next year. Under the leadership of Coach Bizal, the boys varsity basketball team tied for first place in the M.E.C. In city league play they posted an even record of 3-3, by beating Benton twice and in an excellent Homecoming battle they beat Lafayette. Players seeing varsity action are seniors; Jim Treu, Mike Bullimore, Kenney Gilbert, Rick Dickens, Bart Geiger, Paul Pioch, Stephen Minnis, and junior Mark Barnes.

Queen
Kelly O'Rourke

The 1978 basketball homecoming was a great success. Kelly O'Rourke was announced queen at an assembly, Friday morning with Mary Beth Farley, first attendant and Susan Westhoff second attendant. A factor in the success was the win over Lafayette, one of the best games of the season.

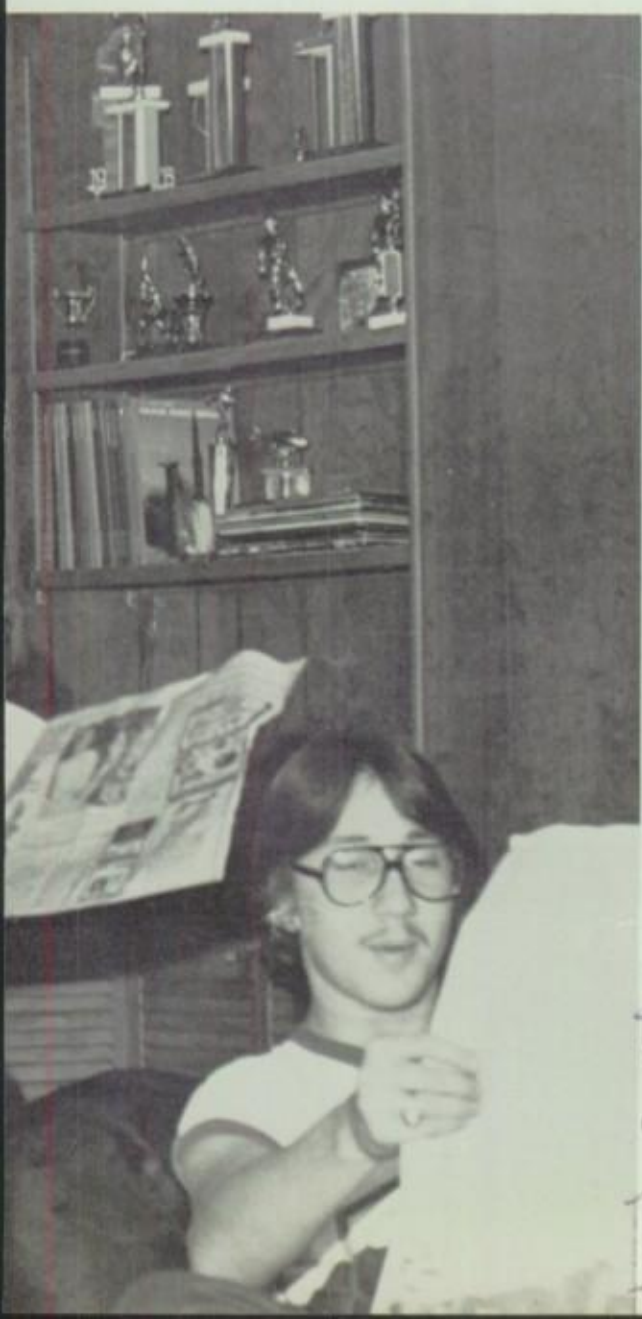

Other activities included old folks day, inside-out day, dress-up day, gangster day, and color day. Friday afternoon was the pep rally, where the royalty watched from their throne. In the evening was the exciting game with Lafayette, and at the end of the activities there was a semi-formal dance, Saturday featuring "Eclipse."

We Made It!

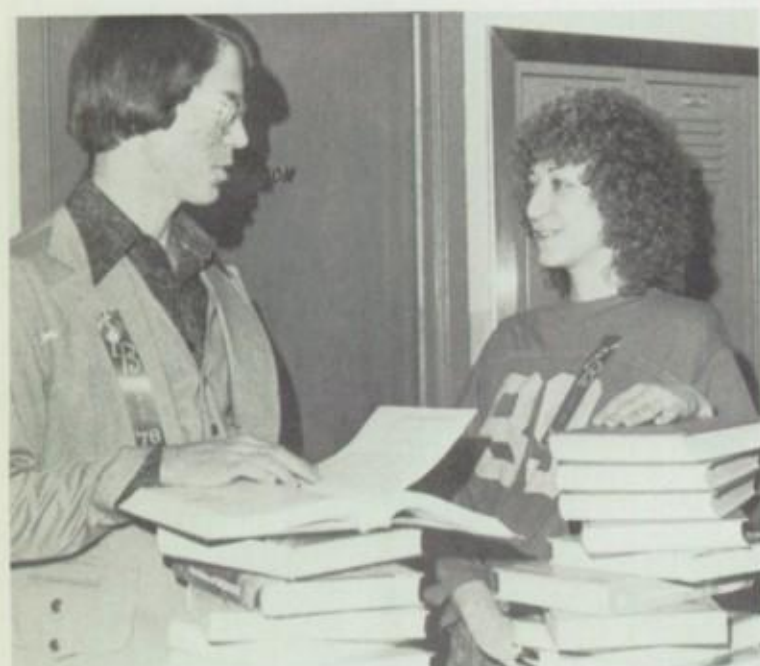

The last four years at Leblond have been memorable for all of us. We are sorry to say that in the next year many friendships will escape us through our separation from Leblond. We will hold on to our memories as we search for our futures and never forget the good times we have had. Tomorrow holds a lot in store for us and as we turn the pages of our past as seen here in this annual we will proceed with our discoveries with a great enthusiasm that is inspired by the familiar faces here. As timid freshmen we were a spirited class. We proved to be one of the most promising classes at Leblond our sophomore and junior years. We always held our own at the pep rallies, candy sales, and ticket sales. As seniors we have become a closely knit group. Parting at graduation will make us a class of the past. Tomorrow is out there so GOOD LUCK CLASS OF '78!

Dear Kathy,
Hi again. Well this year is over and next
year will be our last.
(Sort of sad). We've become very good and
close friends this year. I hope we can stay that way for a long time. I wish
we had more classes
together this year. Classes are more fun with a friend (to get in trouble with) I hope
we can ~~be~~ be together
in a lot of classes
again next year.
We've got to get together this summer
and go swimming (and hopefully get
to play tennis if the weather will cooperate).
Let me know when
your ball games are
at Bartlett and
I'll come watch.
(wish we could have
been on the same team.
Maybe we can next year.)
Love your friend always
Dunise

Congratulations
Ms. Library
Club President
I'm always last to know

Catholic Education Opens Doors to Tomorrow

We, the editors dedicate this book to our catholic school system, whose high standard of learning preserves our religious heritage. The catholic schools play an important role in opening doors for our future. We would like to honor the catholic schools by expressing our feelings in the pages of this yearbook. Special appreciation goes to Sister Bettina and all the Aerie staff for their help on making this yearbook possible.

Tammy McCleave and Cathy Kessler
Co-Editors of the Aerie

P.S. Don't go changing your phone number all the time so I can't call you. I know you are just trying to keep me from calling. - Bill Nancy
